“ To Gloria and the Gallegos' family,
I offer my sincere condolence on the loss of this sweet lady. I absolutely loved Rose! I knew her from both of us working at Saint Mary Corwin Hospital. She was always friendly and smiling. We share many conversations together many of them about gambling lol. I never forgot her even after she and I've both retired. I'm sorry to see that she has passed and I know she will be missed.
She definitely made my life better by knowing her. Rest in peace
Rose in God's loving hands. You certainly earned your wings. ❤️🙏

“ I sat next to my Auntie Rose at her granddaughter's wedding and we reminisced about the past and laughed a lot. I really miss playing cards with her. She was hard to beat! She was always happy and excited to see us when we came in town so we can start the game (poker or rummy). She loved playing cards. She was someone I could talk to about anything I love her to the moon and back and will miss her greatly! Kathy H

Rose's dad was my dad's 1st cousin (Saulo Peralta). My mom, Susana Read was Rose's dad's 3rd cousin. My mom and my family absolutely loved Rose. It's sad to see another Spanish Colonial descendant pass. Love you Rose, your cousin Frankie Peralta
