

Francis "Frank" Gallegos

June 7, 1947 - August 14, 2022

Francis "Frank" Gallegos, 75 of Pueblo, CO, born June 7, 1947, in Brighton, CO, found his peace on August 14, 2022, at the Joni Fair Hospice House after a 10-month long battle with lung cancer. He was preceded in death by his parents, Edward and Lucy Gallegos; sister Rosemary Romo; brothers Johnny and Albert Gallegos. Frank is survived by his loving daughter Christa; son-in-law Manuel Maese; and his only granddaughter, Caitlyn Maese and grandson, Kevin (Amanda Valdez) Maese. Frank also had numerous other family members, Alice (Mel) Abeyta, Sally Gallegos, Janet (Ernie) Abeyta, including the Pacheco and Maese families. In 1968 Frank married Marie Barbara Pacheco. In 1977 they were blessed with the most precious gift, Christa, their only daughter. Frank worked in construction most of his life. He was a hard worker who always did his best to provide for his family. When Frank retired, he spent his time carving wood and only needed his imagination to create some of the most beautiful walking sticks and other creations. Frank also had special family members Erica Hass, Chandra Pulfer, and Abe J. Crespín and his friend Burton E. Peterson. At his request cremation has taken place with no formal services. Celebration of life to follow in October. Reach out to Christa Maese for details.
