“ My name is Matrina Ortega. Our families were connected through music and the movmiento my whole life in Pueblo then later through our late friend and brother, Patricio Duran. I visited their home and even learned how to ride one of their wild horses bareback on their land. My greatest memory of Francisco was at a Cinco De Mayo celebration. One of the first Cinco De Mayo celebrations held at Bessemer Park. His son had been harassed by the police for false allegations and all of the people stepped in. The police disappeared but the patrol car didn't. Francisco walked around like he was at his farm repeating, "Here piggy piggy piggy." We attempted to remove the patrol car from the middle of our celebration. Oh what a day. We, as one, stood up to the injustices of the police and prevailed. No one was arrested. That is what Chicano power really meant! Que Viva!!!

“ I'm So Sorry for the loss of your beloved husband and father, my heart was saddened by the news of his passing but i know it is also a time of rejoice for your family, because i know your father lives on and is in heaven rejoicing with Jesus and shall see your father once again. my parents thought fondly of your father and loved him dearly in Christ. My father enjoyed his visits and always looked forward to the next one. we all enjoyed his beautiful talent in song and playing any instrument he picked up, he was very spiritual and stood strongly in what he believed in, certainly a man and father to be looked up to. my thoughts and prayers are truly with your family at this time and i know you all will be together again in heaven. God Bless you all.
