

Frank Montoya

February 17, 1942 - October 19, 2016

Frank Montoya, 74, went to be with the Lord on October 19, 2016. He is preceded in death by his parents, Ernesto Sr. and Josephine Montoya; brother, Ernesto "Ernie" Montoya and nephew, J.J. Montoya. Frank is survived by his loving wife of 51 years, Susana E. Montoya; children, Frank Michael (Mara) Montoya, Steven Matthew (Toni) Montoya and Desirae Susanne, (Alexei) Maldonado; grandchildren, Taylor (Shane) Gordon, Madison Montoya, Michael (Rose Barth) Montoya, Ryan Montoya, Lauren Montoya, Camron Montoya and A.J. Maldonado; great granddaughter, Makenzie Paisley Gordon; siblings, Robert Sr. (Eleanor) Montoya and Shirley (Tony) Bravo, as well as, numerous nieces, nephews, extended family and friends. Frank proudly served in the Naval Reserve, U.S. Army and later retired from the CF&I as a foreman at the Rail Mill. He enjoyed working all of his life, but his greatest love was to his devoted wife, children and grandchildren. He loved watching them play sports, as well as, attending their numerous other activities. His most cherished times were spent relaxing with his family at his property at San Isabel Lake.

“ I haven't seen Frank for many years but I remember that I enjoyed being around him and his wonderful family. I never heard him say an unkind word about anyone. Prayers for his family and friends.
