

Fred Domingo Salazar

December 17, 2020

Fred Domingo Salazar, 72, of Pueblo, Colorado passed away unexpectedly on December 17, 2020. He was preceded in death by his wife, Phyllis Salazar; father, Fernando Salazar and brother, Louie Salazar. He is survived by his children, Dina (David) Salazar, Dominick Salazar and Tad Salazar; grandchildren, Kyle, Cayla, Faith, Catalina, Rayanne, Jasmine, Tad Jr, Lilliana and Dominick Jr.; great grandchildren, Carmella, Alexander, Octavian, Hailee and Hayden; siblings, Anthony Salazar, Cathy (Jesse) Lujan and Janel (Robert) Brown. Fred was a proud Veteran of the United States Army and honorably served his country during the Vietnam War as a Special Forces Ranger, receiving 3 Purple Hearts. He was a dedicated member at God's Divine Plan of Salvation Church where he was always involved in different projects. Fred was a very social man, who knew no strangers. He was always willing to lend a helping hand not only to his friends, but also to his family. Family meant everything to him and his entire world revolved around his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Our hearts are broken at the tragic loss of Fred and he will be greatly missed but never forgotten by everyone who knew him. Memorial Service, 10:00 am, Tuesday, Grace Christian Church, 630 Broadway, Pueblo.

Keeping all the family in thoughts and prayers. I looked up to “cousin” because of the strong man he was. I admired him for his strength & courage. He was truly the rock of his family and when anyone needed him, he was always willing to lend a hand! He was a Christian Soldier & Loved the word of God. May you all find peace & strength in all the memories you cherish. Love to you all, Dominick, Dina, and Tad, be strong. He is with your Momma now! Love to all the Salazar Family.
