

Gale D. Hancock

November 8, 2020

Gale D. Hancock, 92, of Spanish Peaks Veterans Community Living Center, Walsenburg, Colorado departed this earth on the wings of Angels on November 8, 2020. She was preceded in death by her son, Michael D. Hancock; parents, Herschel and Minnie Lee Jones; and grandmother, Jessie Vardiman. Gale is survived by the love of her life for 73 years, William "Bill" D. Hancock; children, Deborah J. Hancock and Deanna G. Hancock-Sharghi; grandchildren, William A. Hancock, Johnny Shargi and Sam Sharghi; brother, Denver Jones; daughter-in-law, Augustina Montour; numerous aunts, uncles and cousins; extended family and friends. Gale was a multitalented person as owner of Sanford Fashions, a ladies ready-to-wear clothing business catering to the middle to senior age group. She also owned and operated with her daughters, Deborah and Deanna, Fashion Three, a dress shop catering to teens and young adults. After selling both of the businesses Gale took up gemology, working for two of the largest Jewelry stores in San Diego. Later she joined her husband Bill at International Pension Consultants Inc. until their retirement. Their first stop was the Kentucky Derby as she had a great love of horses. Gale served as a Girl Scout leader and a Red Cross Volunteer. Gale will be missed by many many people.
