

George James Gonzales

August 13, 1938 - May 14, 2021

George James Gonzales, 82, of Pueblo, passed away on Friday, May 14, 2021. George was born in Pueblo, Colorado on August 13, 1938, the 7th son of Fernando Gonzales and Rebecca Phifer. He is survived by his loving wife, Linda Gonzales. They spent an incredible 64 years together, always standing by each other's side, sharing countless times of happiness, and enjoying their many adventures. He is also survived by his three children, Deborah (Edward) Stevens, Sonny (Shari) Gonzales and Sandra (George Burnworth) Gonzales; grandchildren, Ryan (Joni) Stevens, Ian (Casey) Stevens, Keenan (Sarah) Stevens, Shilo (Sean) Koscielniak, Landon Gonzales (Lindsay Pitcher), Gabriel Gonzales, Cassi (Isaac) Calvillo and Kelsi (Jacob) Hannemann; great grandchildren, Cora, Everett, Eila, Lia, Kylan, Kinzley, Kellan, Skyler, Loncio, Zamara, Zaiden, Zoie and Stella; numerous nieces and nephews; extended family and friends. George built a successful precision manufacturing company, Tri-Gon Precision Inc., which specializes in high precision, close tolerance parts for the medical and aerospace industries. He started Tri-Gon in 1973, and it has been in business for 48 years. Through Tri-Gon he brought precision grinding to Colorado Springs. George's love for his work was ingrained into the business making close tolerance Tri-Gon' specialty. George dedicated his life to his wife, children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. He will be forever loved and deeply missed by all those he leaves behind to cherish his memory. Service, 3:00 pm, Monday, May 24, 2021. ME

“ Thank you George and the Gonzales family for giving me the opportunity to work for you so many years ago. You taught me so much and wouldn't be where I am today without your help. I'll always remember you as a kind boss and a friend. we had great times on the basketball court. You will truly be missed. God speed George.
