“ We became friends when we became neighbors back in the early 60s. Jerry was quite the practical jokester, resulting in a lot of laughs during high school band and Pride City Band. And then the parties when we were all recently married - wild times! He will be sorely missed. God speed, my friend.

“ Jerry was such a character. He knew I liked the folded Lays potato chips and everytime we had a bag somewhere he would tease me and take all the folded chips and then eat them himself!! He will be greatly missed.

Jerry and I worked together at Target DC here in Pueblo. He trained me as a lumper then as a part-time worker. We worked with each other for 20 years. Jerry, Charlie C, and myself were known as the HOUNDDOGS at Target. He and Roberta were my neighbors for several years on the westside of Pueblo. I will miss his laughter, smile, and jokes he pulled on me plus others at Target. RIP MY FRIEND AND COWORKER DAN THE MAN
