“ My beautiful sister Gloria...as I sit here writing this tears are falling from my eyes. As a little girl I will always have my special memories of you! From pulling my hair when you combed it to being spoiled as one of your own. To the dancing, singing, and sitting on your front porch in summer evenings with mom and dad. I will forever have these memories and more until it is my time to pass. I love you my sweet sister with all my heart! Until I see you again! Gina!

“ Gloria - I don't think there's enough space to share all the memories that I have of you. From meeting you back at Trinidad High School, to hanging out with you at my apartment when I went to college. The time you told me that this cute guy, Danny, had asked you to marry him and you said "yes". To later reconnecting with you when you introduced me to your brother, Phillip, who went on to be my husband. Afterwards with you and Danny and Phillip and I and all of our kids going on picnics, backyard barbeques or just hanging out. Being a special Godmother to my son Lawrence and being a super Aunt to Chris and Greg.

Despite our disputes, we always came back together as friends. You described us as more than sisters-in-law, you said I was your sister and friend. And as you asked me when I spoke to you hours before you passed, no, I will never ever forget you. You left footprints on my heart, my special dear Gloria.

“ In our younger days we had so much fun Gloria was like a sister to me. Gloria, Phillip and I grew up together. Our parents would drop us all off our brothers and sisters at the Isis theater for 16 cents you could watch two movies and a cartoon. Our parents would go to the bar, and we would have to walk home in the dark after seeing two horror movies. Trying to get home before the La Llorona would start crying. All nine of us would be holding hands until we got home. Love you and going to miss you talking about the good old days.

“ Nina I have so many warm memories of you . My favorite is going to your house I would hear 50s music blasting as you vacuumed, danced, and were singing. All the windows would be opened and I would wait before ringing the doorbell to hear you sing. I could smell breakfast you made Nino before he went to work and yes there was leftovers. We would sit and talk for hours you always made time . I love your laugh ,your smile, and mostly your hugs. I love you so much thank you for always be there and for being you. ”

“ Auntie Gloria - as a child I will always remember very fondly two things: 1) when you and uncle Danny would come to Trinidad for the weekend and visit and 2) when we would drive up to Pueblo and bring grandma and grandpa to visit first thing in the morning - and knowing there was going to be the most phenomenal breakfast spread (fried eggs, red chili, potatoes, bacon, donuts, pastries) ever known to man (and the smell of Pine Sol and fresh air). I still remember those days vividly in my mind. Your words of encouragement and support during my college years will never be forgotten. You were part of a crew of strong, tough, funny, and caring women that I'll always be blessed to call my mom and aunts. May God Bless my uncle, my cousins and all those who mourn auntie Gloria.
