

Guillermo "Bill" E. Ortiz Sr.

August 30, 1946 - November 2, 2016

Guillermo E. "Bill" Ortiz Sr., 70, went to the Lord on November 2, 2016. He is preceded in death by his parents, Filomeno and Andrea Ortiz; sister, Lucia Ortiz, brother, Robert "Bob" Ortiz; 2 nieces and 1 nephew. Bill is survived by his children, Stacey (Kelley Revels) Ortiz and Guillermo E. Jr. (Amber) Ortiz; grandchildren, Aurora, Guillermo, Benicio and Lorenzo Ortiz, Erin and Lauren Benevidez; siblings, Frank (Roberta) Ortiz, Dee (Bond) Brown, Sally (Dennis) Torres, Anthony Ortiz, Diana (John Sieklicki) Ortiz and Stanley Ortiz, as well as, numerous nieces, nephews, extended family and friends. Bill retired from the Pueblo Army Depot with 27 years of service, where he was a welder, painter and fulfilled whatever task needed to be done. He also enjoyed fabricating metal artwork, doing various woodworking crafts, working on his '50 Chevy with his son and helping anyone in need. Bill was a gifted musician, and earlier in life played the trumpet in the family band. After retirement, Bill loved spending time with his family, especially his grandchildren, he had a great sense of humor and was very "quick witted"; he loved to make people laugh. He will be forever loved and deeply missed by all who knew him.
