“ Grandma I miss you more and more everyday. To be in your house without you is awful. I still keep hoping your gonna walk out your room and come down the hallway to meet up with us at 2 am in the kitchen to eat our oreos laughing and trying not to wake grandpa. Julie misses you dearly also. You were our rock and our life and our world like you would say. I know your in heaven next to the Lord and your one of the most beautiful angels ever. I would give anything to have one more second with you. But I know I will see you again like you said..we will all meet again in heaven. I love you dearly. All of us do. Julie says she misses you so much and grandpa also. We are all lost without you. I promise though to be strong for you. I love you so much . I know your watching over us. I can still feel your presence everyday all around.
