“ Mom was one of the kindest and most generous humans I have ever known. She was always there for us and protected us from whatever came our way. She made us laugh more often than I could ever say and she gave us unconditional love throughout her 92 years. Thank you for everything Mamacita, you will live on forever in my heart and memories...until we meet again.

Rest in heavenly peace my wonderful Grandmother Gloria Irene. She loved her family very much and we loved her back. I know she is reunited with her family including my Father who went to be with the lord sooner than we hoped. God bless my family and may she Rest In Peace. -Kayla Salazar
