“ I remember when my mom used to take my sister and I over to her Auntie Isabels all the time when I was younger!! I always loved getting up in the morning n helping her make breakfast for anyone that stopped by or was there visiting her. She always would let me play with her massive collection of shoes and high heels or let me and my sister use her nail polishes to paint our nails whenever we came over. Imma definitely miss you Auntie, fly high ☐☐🕊️

“ A special memory for me was when I first met Isabel, she moved into our home when she first got together with my brother Jerry (Aaron & Renee’s dad). I was only about 7 years old, She brought all her nail polishes with her and I thought she was just the coolest sister-in-law ever!! She always treated me like her little sister ♡. When I got older and married James, I asked Isabel to be my maid of honor (witness) at my wedding. She was very special to me, Love you Isabel!!! it’s not goodbye, but see you later!——Janet (Medina) Cordova
