

Jack L. Jaquez

December 9, 2020

Jack L. Jaquez (Jackson 5-J5), 77, of Pueblo passed away on December 9, 2020. He was preceded in death by his parents, Bernardino and Stella Jacques; and brother Wayne Jacques. He is survived by his brother, Jim “Hawk” (Lorraine) Jacques; numerous nephews and nieces, Christopher Keunahrai, Chris “CJ”(Bryana) Coltyn, Cadalina, Elliana and Malia, Jennifer and Jillian Jacques, Rudolph Finn, Justina (Bernd), Dylan and Stephanie Zimmermann, Leonard (Lisa), Lenny (Perla), Jordan, Mark, Adrian (AJ) and Hailey Rae Finn; Other extended family and friends. Jack was a true outdoorsman who loved being in nature and loved to ride his Harley! More than anything he loved spending time with his buddies and family and was happiest when he was with them. He will be forever loved and deeply missed by all those he leaves behind. Private Family Graveside Service 1:00 pm, Monday, San Acacio Cemetery Viejo, San Luis Valley.

Tribute Wall

JV

“ Our deepest condolences to the family. Jack was a wonderful and kind man. He often brought his mother Stella to visit and took care of her with so much love.

Rest In Peace Jack.

Julia Valdez and family

jean Valdez - December 19, 2020 at 01:15 PM

GC

“ Jack was a very special Cousin and I loved going to Pueblo to visit with him. He was so proud of his new Harley Davidson Bike and was so excited to show it off. Jack I will miss your special smile and I love you very much

God Bless and rest in peace 🌸💍❤️❤️

Gloria Covarrubias - December 18, 2020 at 09:51 PM