

Jacob Lee Canchola

October 2, 1997 - March 13, 2019

Jake Canchola, beloved son, grandson, nephew and uncle, was born on Oct 2, 1997 in Pueblo, Colorado and passed away suddenly on March 13, 2019, in Pueblo, Colorado. He is survived by his mother, Katina Canchola (Keith McDowell); father, Danny Canchola; brother, Brandon Canchola; nephew, Jayden; grandparents, Kathy Steele, Tony Canchola, Rick Lujan (Diane), and Les Steele; godparent, Lesley Merlino, 2 Great Grandmothers; numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family and friends. Preceded in death by his grandmother Gloria Canchola.

Jake went to school in Pueblo West and played hockey for many years. He loved music, working out and cultivation.

Jake was a man of few;

Few words, but when he spoke it was with thought and often humor.

Few people close to him, but he was true and loving to those that were.

Few years, but those years will be remembered always by those he touched.
