“ Share a memory... there are too many to share one without going on to all the others. From my youth to my years as a man I have looked to my uncle as one of the hero's in our family. From his time in jungle to being a father, my uncle always did his best. Never was a time when he purposely looked to harm another. His love for humanity ran deep and we had many worldly conversations through the years. I am grateful for the time we had and look forward to the day we meet again. I know he will be one of the first to receive me when that day comes. He was a man's man and a friends friend even to total strangers. I love you uncle and will miss you. If it was a memory I share it would be one of joy. Just a few blocks from where I post this was a house of joy and family on Kingsley. One of the happiest times in his life I remember when he bought his Golden Eagle Jeep. Pride of the block and as cool as the snow that falls now. On the hood a picture of his War Bird. Wings spread as if it could take off at any moment and fly away. He would take his four wheel driving in the canyons of the boulevard just west of town. Up to the top of a hill with no view of the other side he would pound the peddle and say “hold on guys we're about to fly!”. My stomach in my throat and eyes as wide as the headlights he bound over the top and catch a little air. Never once though did I ever think I was in danger cause I had my very own soldier to protect me, my uncle Jim. Now he protects us all from on high. Thank you uncle for this and all the memories I have to tide me over, too many to post. So I ask u all for a moment to look into ur heart and memories. Find them, remember them and cherish them for these are the true jewels of life that many of us in our haste tend to forget. As for my uncle and the memories in my treasure chest of life will never fade. Thank you uncle, your nephew loves you! RIP ❤️
