

James "Jim" Harold Abeyta

November 5, 2020

James "Jim" Harold Abeyta, 52. of Pueblo West, passed away unexpectedly on November 5, 2020. He was preceded in death by his son, Jonathon Lucas Abeyta; father, Samuel Abeyta; grandparents, Isaac Valdez and Aurelia DuPont Valdez; nephews Keith "Buddy" Abeyta and Andrew Herrera; and father-in-law Adolph Sanchez. He is survived by his wife of 36 years, Connie Abeyta; mother, Delma Abeyta; siblings, Felix Abeyta, Bobby Abeyta, Rudy Abeyta, Paula Abeyta, Carol Abeyta (Jerry Duran), Keith (Evonne) Abeyta, Julie (Herman) Martinez, Jim (Pam) Sanchez, and Richard (Janice) Sanchez; in-laws Maria and Ben Valdez; numerous nieces and nephews; extended family and friends. Jim was an avid Denver Bronco's fan who in his younger years enjoyed hunting. He was a Truck Driver for 30 years as well as a Terminal Manager. During Middle School he played football and ran track, holding records in both sports for many years. Jim was very mischievous and playful with many friends. He never knew a stranger and people always immediately took a liking to him. Jim loved his family more than anything and he was happiest when he was with them. He will be forever loved and deeply missed by all those he leaves behind. Rest in peace my friend it had been a long time that i had not seen you i remember when we were young old timers playing baseball and playing jr.high sports against each other and playing with a passion and heart .i wish i could have talked to you my bro may you rest in peace
