You were so easy to love especially with that warm gorgeous smile. Life's current drifted me away and when I returned we were unable to reconnect yet I feel and see you do clearly in my mind as if it was just yesterday I last hugged you. I am blessed by the moments we shared in our youth. Love you cuz.

“ Jeanine was one of the best mothers, daughters and friends you would ever meet. The first time I worked with her was on an Easter Sunday and she arranged for another nurse to watch the unit so we could go to mass upstairs. She was so funny and could make my shifts at work enjoyable. She was so proud of AJ as we all know. She loved her mom's phone calls when we were at work. She had great stories of her father and brother. I will miss her more than words can say. I love you my friend. Dance with the wolves, 🥺
