

Jesse Roger Aragon

March 27, 1944 - October 14, 2024

Jesse Roger Aragon, 80, of Pueblo, CO went to be with the Lord on October 14, 2024. He was preceded in death by his wife, Angela Aragon; great granddaughter, Kehlani Pacheco; father, Maximilliano Aragon and parents, Clorinda and Maclovio Montoya; brother, Max Montoya; sister, Filomena Garcia; and numerous family members. He is survived by his daughters, Jessica (Thomas) Martinez and Justine Aragon; grandchildren; Autumn (Tanner), Summer and Julyan; nine siblings; numerous nieces, nephews, extended family and friends. Jesse was a man of unwavering faith, a devoted Catholic who attended church every Sunday. After losing his wife he was so heart broken but he exemplified strength and grace in every aspect of his life. He was the most gentle, sweet, intelligent, humble and generous man. He loved spending time with his family but his greatest joys, love, and pride were his grandchildren. He was a member of Knights of Columbus for many years. He was a diesel mechanic his entire life retiring from Pepsi Cola. Jesse will be deeply missed by his family and friends and all who loved him. In lieu of flowers, and food, make donations to St. Anne's Catholic Church.

“ Just wanted to send a heartfelt word to the friends and family of my cousin Jessie, I would always remember the smiles he would make as we approached him anytime we would meet, I Lyle was able to meet him the last time we got together as I was visiting family in May, he had that same smile I always remember. To the family it was a pleasure to meet and talk with him there in Pueblo. Condolences to the kids and siblings.

“ My Beloved Nino, I will love you forever. I will cherish in my heart spending the day with you two days prior to your passing. I never thought for the world that would be our last good-bye. Your love, your smile, your spontaneous trips to Questa to see my mom, everything about you will be greatly missed. Rest in Peace Nina. My most heartfelt condolences to my God-Sisters Jessica (Thomas), Justine, Autumn (Tanner), Summer and Julyan. God Bless you and bring you comfort. My prayers are with you all.
