

Jesse R. Corrales

May 21, 1985 - February 8, 2026

Jesse Corrales, age 40, passed away on February 8, 2026. Born on May 21, 1985, in Arizona, Jesse was a cherished father, son, brother, uncle, friend, and coach whose warmth and kindness touched the lives of many. Known for his ever-present smile and generous spirit, Jesse had a remarkable ability to brighten any room and a fierce protectiveness over those he loved. Jesse's life was deeply rooted in family and friendship. He loved spending quality time with those close to him and was always the one to make things happen, no matter the circumstances. His unwavering support extended to his family and friends, and he was a pillar of strength. Every year, Jesse made it a special tradition to attend the Colorado State Fair, where he proudly posed for a picture with his children, proudly representing his dedication to family. A devoted father, Jesse was the biggest supporter for his daughter Jessi's blossoming flower business, encouraging her every step of the way. His love was not only felt through his words but through his actions always caring, nurturing, and protective. Jesse shared a profound passion for wrestling, often wrestled with his son Carmelo and competing in "Who's Bad" wrestling events alongside his nieces, creating lasting memories and strengthening family bonds. Jesse's love for sports extended beyond wrestling. He was a dedicated coach for the F-Bombers football team, inspiring young athletes with his leadership and enthusiasm. Music was another one of Jesse's great passions, especially the works of Tech N9ne, which resonated deeply with him. He was also a loyal fan of the Minnesota Vikings, proudly following and cheering on his favorite football team. He is survived by his loving girlfriend, Amber Miller, who was a steadfast companion and source of support, and her son Colby, whom Jesse affectionately used to call "Vanilla Bean." Jesse leaves behind a large and loving family. His children: Juziah, Jessi, Carmelo, Braylee, Raiden, and Julian, who were the center of his world; his parents, LaDonna Gallegos and Eleazar Corrales; and his grandmother, Jovita Soto, married to Everado Soto; Donna Quintana, grandmother to three of his children, who maintained a close and loving relationship with Jesse and his family throughout the years; Jesse's siblings include Fabian Corrales, Savannah and RC Garcia, as well as Cody Corrales, Leo Corrales, Selena Corrales, Sierra Bernal, and Dawn Luttrell. He also is survived by step-siblings Brandon Gallegos and Angella Gallegos; brothers by choice Anthony Gallegos and Kevin Sanchez; brother by bond James Bernal; sister by choice Dreena Gonzalez Quintana; sisters by bond Rachelle Gallegos, Marquisa Bernal, and Laenae Pontoya; and many beloved nieces and nephews. Jesse was preceded in death by his brother Julian Gallegos, aunt Sandra Martinez, grandfather Archie Martinez, and his grandparents Leo and Rita Corrales. Jesse's legacy is one of love, loyalty, and strength. His warmth and protective spirit left a lasting imprint on all who knew him. He will be deeply missed but forever remembered in the hearts of his family, friends, and community.
