

Jessica Lynn Montez

April 14, 1994 - March 21, 2024

Jessica Lynn Montez, 29 of Pueblo departed this life on March 21, 2024, after God decided the party in Heaven was getting a little lame, and he needed to liven it up. Jessica went by many names, to her mom she was baby girl, family she was Jess, to her brothers she was Munchkin, to her nieces & nephews she was Auntie, and to her friends she was Baby Jess. Jessica lived life like a Lion roars, ferociously. Her love was unconditional, her laughter was infectious, and her smile was a work of art. She is preceded in death by her parents, Robert and Margaret Montez, Grandma Autobee, Gramps Robert Quintana, Sister Alisha Espinoza, Aunt Anna Marie, as well as numerous grandparents, aunts, and uncles. She is survived by her parents Cheryl (Marco) Montez, David (Lynne) Vigil; brothers Joey (Sarah) Montez, David (Nevada) Vigil; Sisters Andrea (Eric) Trujillo, Angelaca (Garret) Graston; Grandparents Joe (Della) Vigil, Virginia Quintana; Uncles Robert (Lisa) Montez, Robert (Brenda) Vigil, John Montez; boyfriend Isaac Encinias; Nieces/Nephews, JoJo, Graecynn, Braelynn (her god baby), Meadow, and other numerous nieces and nephews she loved; Her Fur Babies Storm, Hope, and Trooper; Cousins Bobbi Ann, Kenny, Robert Lee, Desirae, Ariyana, Murissa, Mariah and numerous other extended family and friends. Jessica had a passion for music, often gracing EDM festivals with her sweet dance moves she learned by putting on performances in her living room as a little girl. She loved spending time with her family, reading, fashion, shopping, makeup, and doing her own nails. She had a love for freestyle rapping, often busting some "sick flows" when surrounded by friends and strangers alike. Jessica's true love and passion went into being the best God Mother and Auntie, a title she wore ever so proudly. She will be deeply missed by all who loved her, and by all who were blessed to cross her path. Legends are built from souls like hers.
