

Jessica Ann Shockey

November 1, 2021

Jessica Ann Shockey, 27, of Pueblo, passed away on November 1, 2021. She is preceded in death by her great-grandmothers, Ruth Shockey and Irene (John) Wilson; Grandfather, Tomas “Pampo” Shockey, and Grandpa Tom Gurule and Godparents, Bob and Theresa Shockey. Survived by her loving husband, Kyle Ellis and daughters, Serenity and Kaiya; Father, Pat Shockey (Tammy); Mother, Rebecca Martinez; Sisters Audrey Shockey, and Rena Martinez; Brothers Anthony Rios, Gregory Martinez, Jeremy Martinez and Ryan Shockey. Grandmas, Nisha “Nana” Shockey, Gladys Gurule and Paula Neace; along with countless aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family and friends. With a heart overflowing with love to give, she was likely one of the most generous and thoughtful people you’ve ever met. She always inspired those around her to do and be better. “Just because you can, doesn’t mean you should...” she would whisper kindly. Jessica loved being a mother more than anything else in the world and it was something she always aspired to be. She also had a passion for learning the art of photography and an affinity for exploring old, abandoned homes and buildings. Always finding beauty and meaning where others found fault, and in places and people left behind. Intentions to buy her dream cosmetology business, launch her own aromatherapy skin care line, rescue children in need (with ambitions to open her own modern-day orphanage), horse owner, and future photographer are just a few of the many ambitions she was motivated to achieve. She will be forever loved and missed by those left behind to cherish her memory.

“ Although I had not seen her in person in 25 years, I remember Jessica as a beautiful & sweet two-year-old child. Such a loss to her family, friends, and humankind. R.I.P.

“ Jess was one of a kind whose light we lost far too soon. My deepest sympathy goes out to the family during this difficult time. I am so sorry I was not able to make the service but please know my thoughts and prayers are with you. I saw this quote and it hit home for me when it comes you Jess. "Those who touch our lives, stay in our hearts forever" Jess you will always be a part of our hearts, may you Rest In Peace.

“ Remember when we were little you taught me how to shave my legs and do my eye brows . I remember all the fun times we had being goof balls throwing care bears of our balcony on your birthday. Stealing cigs from our parent like we had any idea how to smoke them bot we sure did feel so cool . Jess you were my friend when I moved back to colorado I git made fun of an bullied alot but u didnt care you were still my friend my friend thru it all . I haven't seen you since I was a teenager but I will never forget what you did for me . I love you dearly I will hold in to those memories of you for ever you were such a sweet girl . You will be missed love 🙏❤️

“ With great fondness we remember Jess as a little girl jumping on the bed with her sister and cousins. She blossomed into a beautiful loving woman. She will live on in memories and hearts. Also in the memory of her Heavenly Father waiting the day when pain and suffering are gone Rev 21:3, 4.

“ I just recently met her, she became my nail lady and was just the sweetest to me. I enjoyed the few times I got to spend with her. I grew up with her husband and sister. This is just so shocking to me such a beautiful soul gone from the world ❤️

“ First I wanna say this girl was my first best friend. She let every know that too. At your birthday party we cheated and you told me what plate to pick and helped me pop the balloons. I got all the Prizes for we can play with them when everyone leaves. Love you always Jess. Next time we see each other I will be getting my mani pedi from you. ❤️
