“ To Jess’s large family I am deeply sorry for the loss of your brother, father, uncle, cousin, husband, friend and to all his loved ones. I also grew up in Las Animas and were friends growing up. Knew his parents and sibling and have a lot of fond memories. I was sorry to hear of his long illness and blessed to have had loving fun times with him and Sandra before his illness. I know he gave it his all and may all the wonderful memories keep him close to you all...Sandra I love you and know you will always have Jess close to your heart now and forever...

“ Gone But Not Forgotten

Jess, when I heard you were gone I had the strangest feeling ever. It was a mix of emotions that is hard to describe. Part of me was so happy that you were no longer in pain and suffering, but another part of me was very sad that you were no longer here. The best way that I can think of to describe this feeling is bittersweet. Ever since I can remember, you have always been there. You were not only a big brother, but a hero as well. I have so many memories of us over the years —memories of the Magaña Boys hanging out together, drinking a few beers and having a whole lot of laughs. I miss those days, but will treasure the memories.

You always seemed a little larger than life. Even when I was mad at you, I always admired your strength and resilience. You had the ability to bounce back from difficult circumstances. When I think about it, I am reminded of my life verse: “Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go” (Joshua 1:9 NIV). You have always been strong and courageous in my eyes, even to the very end.

Rest in peace my brother. I love you with all of my heart and will miss you terribly. But I will always be happy when I think of where you are now, in heaven with Mom and Daddy, where there is no more pain and no more tears.

- Ruben, aka Grover.
