

Joanna Williams

January 3, 1954 - April 24, 2015

Joanna Williams, 61, of Pueblo, passed away unexpectedly on April 24, 2015. She is preceded in death by her brothers, Buck Williams, James Rose, Freddy Williams and Joe Williams; and parents, Fronia and Uzzel Willis. Joanna is survived by her siblings, Amos (Sue) Williams and Esther Hawkins; and numerous nieces, nephews, extended family and friends. Joanna went to Israel 10 years ago to visit the Holy Land to walk where Jesus walked. During her visit to the Holy Land Joanna knew at the time, that the Jewish Faith and the Synagogue was where she was to devote her life. Joanna loved the Jewish Synagogue and was an active member of the sisterhood there. Joanna is going to be missed by all of her families and friends.

“ All I can say is this is quite a shock! I'm making a decision to live each day as if it were my last and be happy and thankful always! I will miss the laughs we had together girl! I know you are with us in spirit! But it's sad to look over and not see you sitting where you always sit at Shull!

“ We will miss her infectious smile and laughter. To be around was to be "Happy" and to be excited about Jesus!! She shared so much of Her walk in the Jewish faith with anyone who would listen! She was never ashamed of who she was or what she believe! Such a sweet spirit! Rest in Peace my dear Friend and Sister in Christ💕💕💕💕💕💕Cheryl and The Blackwell Family
