

Joe Daniel Sanchez

January 25, 1943 - April 3, 2024

Joe Daniel Sanchez passed away surrounded by family on April 3rd, 2024. Known by many as Joe or Dan, and affectionately as Danny, had his sunrise on January 25th, 1943. A U.S. Army Veteran, Danny served 8 years in the thick of the Vietnam War and earned each of his prized medals for his valiant service to his country and his fellow soldiers. Danny was an artist, in paint and woodworking from a young age, when his vision was taken from him at the age of 38. His vision loss might have stolen these gifts from him, but never his music. Danny used his hands and his keen ear to feel his way across a guitar and pick up the cords of any song. He used his passion for music to become a solo Mariachi and combine his passion for music with his ability to make others smile and cheer from one end of Colorado to the other. Joe (Danny) Daniel Sanchez leaves behind his devoted wife, and heart and soul, of 44 years, Diana Sanchez, his cherished Children, Eric Sanchez, Michael Sanchez, Jason Sanchez, Jessica (Andrew) Gowin, and Marie (Joel) Escamilla, his Grandchildren, Casandra Sanchez, Shari (Forrest) Sanchez Dang, Jessica Sanchez, Andilee Gowin, Brooke Gowin, Cameron Gowin, Sara (James) Marquez and Joel (Elisa) Escamilla, Great-Grandchildren Veronica, AJ and Logan Brown, Benicio & Adelina Marquez, and Eva & Emma Escamilla, his siblings, Manuel (Joann) Madrid & Family, Bonifacio Madrid & Family, Juanita Trujillo & Family, Joseph (Cathy) Ramirez & Family, and Margaret (Guillermo) Sanchez-Rivera & Family, his numerous cousins, in-laws and special individuals, close to his heart, Katrina Martinez-Sandoval, Lance Rivera, and Leanna Dunn. Danny is preceded in his sunset by his parents, Andronico Sanchez & Teresita Ramirez, his sister Viola Sanchez, brother George Sanchez, and his Son, Andronico Sanchez.

“ Joe was always kind to me. He had such a sweet demeanor that attracted love from everyone who knew him. He always did whatever he could to ensure everything and everyone was taken care of. He took pride in his military service, his music and his wonderful family. May he dwell in perfect health and vision with the Lord now. May his family and friends find peace in his undying love.
