

John Henry DeHerrera Jr.

July 24, 1973 - April 27, 2022

John Henry DeHerrera Jr., 48, of Pueblo, entered into the Kingdom of Heaven on April 27, 2022 with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. He was affectionately known as “KeKe”. He was preceded in death by his father, John Henry DeHerrera Sr.; comadre, V; grandmother, Erlinda DeHerrera; numerous other family. He is survived by his wife of 26 years, Bernadine Lucero DeHerrera; children, John Henry (Annaliece) DeHerrera III, Isaiah Anthony (Brea) DeHerrera and Serenity Monique DeHerrera; stepson, Sergio Devon Lucero; grandchildren, Luciana, Aunisty and John Henry DeHerrera IV; mother, Julie (Floyd) Valdez; sisters, Lisa, Teresa and Ruby DeHerrera; god children, JoJo DeHerrera and Elijah Lucero and his pebbles, Alarae Armenta; numerous nieces, nephews, aunts and uncles; extended family and friends; brothers from the heart, Chuco, Jose and Joey DeHerrera, Rick Medina and Stevan Armenta. KeKe’s pride and joy were his children and grandchildren. He loved his wife and family to the fullest. He was an avid fan of the Colts. “Goooo Colts!!!” was one of his favorite sayings and everyone knew he was a Bronco hater. LOL. KeKe enjoyed fishing, camping and playing Texas Hold’em. He also enjoyed music, his truck and family get togethers. He was a dedicated husband, father, brother, son and uncle who worked hard through the years to support his family and would do anything for any of them in need. He was the pillar of strength in his family. KeKe loved the West Side but most of all he loved his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ and spending time with his family. He will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him. Memorial Service, 3:00

“ Rest in peace to one of the only father figures that I wish I would of listened to instead of being hard headed just because you were strict....I never understood why you were the way you were until now that I'm older I under stand now that it wasnt you being mean it was you trying to give me guidance and show me the right way man o man how I wish I would of just listened instead of being an idiot and just thinking you were being mean to me maybe my life would of went a whole different direction and I would have a family/career maybe I would of graduated from a high school instead of receiving my GED in DOC but I chose to be a knuckle head and think I new it all I could hear you now saying "jito if you don't want to help your self don't expect me or your mom to help you or baby you" I always thought it was just because I wasn't your biological son that you were that way with me but now that im older I sit and look and my 2 younger brothers and little sister you did an amazing job raising those kids with discipline and respect and I sit and think if I would have just took your advice I would not have gone and taken the wrong roads and made some of the messed up choices I made and for that I'm sorry but just no I thank you for being a huge substantial male influence in my life I just regret not listening to what you had to say sooner instead of now dwelling on it now that you have moved on to a better place I love you John for real man sorry I didn't get a chance to say I'm sorry and to tell you iv always looked at you as my pops even tho I was to hard headed to act like a son rest easy till we meet again in the WESTSIDE of heaven.
