“ Today is Elijah’s last day of school, Grandpa... he did it! ❤️
A moment we have all been waiting for, and I know you would be so incredibly proud of the young man he has become. Through every challenge, every lesson, and every milestone, he kept pushing forward and today he finishes this chapter stronger than ever.

I know you’ve been watching over him every step of the way. Your love, guidance, and presence continue to live on in him daily. We felt you beside us through this journey, and today we celebrate not only Elijah’s accomplishment, but the love and support that helped carry him here.

He did it, Grandpa. 🧑🎓

“💔 A million times I have cried alone, a million times I have needed you, to talk to you, to hear the wisdom in your advice. Although I am full of sadness that you are no longer here, your influence still guides me and that's how I know you're near. Remembering you is easy, I do it everyday, but missing you is a heartache that never goes away. As long as I am living I will carry you with me. It's been a year now and I miss you still the same, time changes nothing and this day changed everything. One of the hardest things that was required of me was this day I had to let you go. I hope you are resting my beautiful angel I love you always and forever grandpa 💔

“ Happy Heavenly Birthday Grandpa 💔!

Today I gazed at your pictures, and thought of you with love. Wishing you were here today, for even just a hug. If only we could sing to you, and see your loving smile! You will forever be apart of us and live on in our hearts. I often feared the day where we would have to part. I wondered how your doing in Heaven up above. Is there a party up in Heaven to celebrate today? Did Angels frost a cake for you and sing to start your day? I truly hope your special day is filled with peace and love. I miss those special moments that we shared throughout the years, it's hard to find that on this day my eyes now fill with tears. I'm trying hard to smile for you, but ohhh that empty chair, I turn around and find myself shocked that you aren't there. Why did it have to be you, I still cannot believe it to be true. Please know that we are thinking of you throughout each day, but this day is very special because it's your Birthday! We love and miss you very much!!

“ Today marks three months without you, three months too long 😞. I often think about my last conversation with you, our laugh and your smile. Never would I have ever thought that would be the last time I would be seeing you, laughing with you, speaking to you! I will always hold that conversation dear to my heart. Looking back I feel although you were in the hospital you were happy and at peace. It's still hard to accept, I miss you so much. Some days I sit and close my eyes just to see your face again. Your advice was the best and parenting and the teenage years is what I looked forward to with you and Elijah. Elijah played in a tournament a couple weekends ago and I felt your presence there. Even before the photos the scenery was just so peaceful, the sun was bright, the sky was blue, the birds were singing and the wind was soft. What I didn't know is you were there. Elijah played an amazing, amazing, amazing game. My aunt took many pictures of Elijahs team mates, but only in Elijahs pictures did you appear. Thank you for watching over us, you know part of my sadness is that you aren't here to celebrate Elijahs upcoming milestones. After seeing the big orb over Elijah in his photos I now know you aren't missing Elijahs milestones you're right there facing them with him. You were at the plate with him that day and lord knows had I seen that orb on the small camera I would have ran to Elijah at the plate and hugged him if that meant I were hugging you one last time. I miss you so so much grandpa.

“ Grieving comes and goes unexpectedly with no sign of when you will be sad, there are many forms of grieving. Today as Elijah and I were putting our winter clothes away and folding our clothes we do wear I started to fold your Raider shirt. Elijah looked at me and said I want to lay with grandpas shirt. I asked him if he wanted it around him like a hug he said yeah I want it to hug me. My heart suddenly broken into pieces once again. I miss you so much grandpa and Elijah does too! I know he grieves for you in his own way. His necklace never comes off and it's something he holds dear to his heart. He is happy to have you with him each and everyday. We love you so much and not a day goes by that we don't think of you. Please continue to watch over Elijah, he still needs you.

“ My heart breaks today, I can't believe it's already been one whole month without you 💔. Nothing is the same, drives to Pueblo these days I can only think about our car rides from denver to springs and 6am. Passing through springs I can only think about how all my memories with you are there. Driving into Pueblo I prepare myself to walk in your home and not see you sitting in your chair eating your pretzels. Hearing grandmas cry is the worst, because I know there is nothing that will heal her broken heart. It still doesn't feel real, we had just talked to you and you joked with Elijah at 7:45. I would have never thought that was going to be the last time we would see you smile and hear your voice 😭. We love and miss you so much each and everyday Grandpa.

“ Grandpa, I want to thank you for everything you have done for me, from loving me as a tiny baby till now. Also for loving Hector and Elijah. I am so thankful I had 32 years with you, and so many wonderful memories with you that I will cherish and hold near to my heart forever. I was always a spoiled brat as you would call me. One day I was promoted to a Wilma like Grandma and Auntie, that was your way of loving us. Our drives from Denver to Springs at 6am I won't ever forget. Me calling you or you calling me after a Raider Bronco game to talk stuff to each other. Us kids asking to go play at the park at the corona house you would say “Yeah, Go play on the highway.” (LOL). You being Hectors Caddy golfing, I don't know how many times you called him a dumbass. So many more memories I have of you. Each day that's passes my heart hurts, I still can't believe this to be true. Elijah hit a milestone this Friday and I was so sad that I couldn't call you and share it with you like I usually would. We love you so much grandpa, life will not be the same without you. Please watch over Grandma, Auntie and Unlce Matt their hearts are broken. Please watch over Me, Hector and Elijah, ours hearts are hurting too. Even though this is not goodbye it's see you later it's not easy to accept. We love you Grandpa always and forever!

“ Unks I just can't grasp the fact that you are gone, We we're not prepared to let you go. I just want to thank you for everything you have done for the kids and I all I had to do was call and you were there without hesitation. The memory that crossed my mind this morning was when you and Aunite took us to Disneyland Rochelle was in the pool swimming and I was so afraid of the water so you just threw me in...well I almost drowned Rochelle so you had to jump in and save us both! So many memories that I will hold dear in my heart. Like I told you the other day this is not goodbye but see you later, save me a spot and give everyone a hug for us. I love you old man! Your memory will carry on through us....

“ I remember one time when we were visiting, Siara was about a year old and Sandy had little ceramic figurines all over. We started grabbing them to move them out of reach from Siara. You put them right back and said tell her No and smack the top of her hand, so we did. The next time we went over you moved everything out of her reach. We you teased you the whole day. “ Oh my grumpy, loving Nino. There's so much I can say but I just can't seem to find the words. Countless memories of us as kids, every other weekend at yours and aunties house. Me always starting a question with just "uncle?" And your immediate response would always be "NO" haha. We are all going to miss you so much, our hearts are completely shattered. You were like a father figure to all of us. I knew that if there wasn't anyone else I could count on, I could count on you. I'll never forget the family get togethers, you my grandpa Dan and uncle Jake in your man cave just chillin watching football. Or the mornings you would come and pick up Cruz to take him golfing with you. There's so many memories that I can look back on and share but I could go on forever. I just want you to know that we all love you so so much, and you are going to be so missed

You and my grandpa now sit back and chill just like the good ole day but now in paradise together. This is never a goodbye uncle this is just a see you later. Thank you for being the man that you were, and being such a good person to look up to you. WE LOVE YOU FOREVER❤️
