“ I hunted with red eye, Chico, and others. Red eye was the topic conversation the day after our first drunk party, he would wake up with eyes that looked like stoplights from the hangover! Great , funny fella

“ Condolences to Redeye's family and friend. Joe worked with my dad at the City for many years together. I hope they find each other on the other side and talk and laugh about their times at work. It's great to see he lived a long life. ❤️🙏
