“ My heart goes out to the garcia family. Joe was such a positive influence in my life since the day I met him. he would strip the shirt off his back and give it away for anybody in need. even if he would be cold it never fazed him because he knew somebody was better off than they were before because he was able to help. I can't count how many times I've seen him do it without even thinking. this tragedy took my breath away. u helped me thru more than u kno bro and u are gonna be terribly missed. keep shining my good friend. until we meet again . Fly High my boy
