

Jose E. Gonzales

July 6, 1932 - February 18, 2019

Jose E. Gonzales, 86, of Pueblo, Colorado went to be with his heavenly Father on February 18, 2019. He was preceded in death by his parents, Benses and Isabel Gonzales and brother, Agapito Gonzales. Left to cherish his memory his wife, Helen Gonzales; sons, Edward (Amy) and Michael (Robin) Gonzales; grandchildren, Georgia Gove, Christine (Mark) Gonzales Shifflet, Sarah Gonzales and Maya Gonzales; sister, Alice Maestas; brother-in-law, Apolonio Chavez Jr.; special nieces, Evelyn (Dennis) Mondragon, Lori Estrada; numerous nieces, nephews, extended family and treasured friends. He was born on July 6, 1932 in Taos, New Mexico. He lived a long and productive life, which included passing his State Board Exam to become a Licensed Professional Land Surveyor, includes starting his own land surveying company (Advanced Surveying) in 1978. His two sons and brother worked for him as he was growing his company. He retired in early 2000's. He enjoyed the mountains, hunting and fishing with family and friends. He cherished elk and deer hunting with his sons, granddaughters and old hunting buddy's up until the last couple years. He enjoyed his mountain property on Greenhorn, Mt and built two cabins for his family to enjoy the outdoors as much as he did. His military service was in the Army in the 8 and 25 Artillery Regiment in the Korean Conflict. Family always came first and made numerous sacrifices for the family. He loved his family and especially his granddaughters whom he was adored as "Papa". Jose will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him dearly.
