Joseph who usually went by Leroy loved his family unconditionally and had a special place for each one of them in his heart especially his grandson Gabriel. He made sure to keep in contact with his family by calling or texting everyone good night and letting them know that he loved them. Joseph was always willing to lend a hand to help someone, even if that meant giving his last dollar, fixing a car, or just showing up for a shoulder to cry on. He taught us that strength comes from within our hearts and to keep pushing through in the hardest of times.
