“ First, I want to start off by sending my condolences to Patty, Michael, Greg and James.. Albert and I met when we were running the streets in the southside during middle school. God has such a sense of humor. I remember when I met Albert he would tease me because I was so skinny you could see my elbow bones. We would start wrestling until he would say "I give". Now, I am so pleasantly plump you cannot see any bones lol! Al's parents had him in check because he could not go anywhere until he did the dishes. We didn't mind because we would be able to play pool until he finished the dishes. I remember joy riding in his dad's car "with permission" laughing and joking all night long. We shared a love for Harley's but the greatest love we shared was our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I am thankful for the privilege to have a pastor friend that helped me to lead Albert to the Lord on June 25th. This was the last time that I was able to hug up with Albert, to say our goodbyes, and he for the last time on this side of heaven said, "I'll see you charmos". I will miss you bro but I know that by you accepting our Lord Jesus Christ that we will meet again in heaven one day. Love Clyde!
