“ Well I met Eddie way back in the day! I was in highschool working under the JET program. I worked under Martin Serna at the time! I was introduced to most of the brown berets. Eddie Montour took me under his wing that first day. I became active in the Chicano movement. I was so proud of my people standing up for the plight of the farm workers that were being disrespected as they are again today!
We marched, we boycotted! I seen that office buzzing with excitement when all that was done was a total success! And I seen Eddie's great big smile! That day was a memory I will keep in my heart forever! "Que Viva La Raza!!!" Thank you Eddie for all you have done! It is now written in the stars!

“ My Companero: We met many years ago and we built many wonderful memories together: family, protesting, teaching, learning and ALWAYS struggling to build a better life for our people especially our youth. Some say when you came to Pueblo you always stayed with Ed & his family during the times when I lived a life underground. He knew if things came down he was there to be my friend and knew the sacrifices that entailed by my staying at his home. He died as a warrior, a soldier and a GENTLEMAN but most importantly with his dignity intact.. HE NEVER COMPRISED! Thank you for being my friend You will always be in my heart & memories!!!

“ Eddie from our time in the brown berets in the 70's through mutual support of the Crusade for Justice, American Indian Movement, Peace and Dignity Journeys 2000 and receiving a human rights award in the same event, I grieve the loss of a warrior. The last of an era gone by. If only we had more like him still. See you again in the stars someday brother. Rocky Rodriguez

“ I will always cherish the times I spent with Eddie whether it was in the community, sitting outside the Centro, indoors with the kids or any other project he had going. I will always remember his comment about the progress we had made when both of us were cruising the streets of Pueblo in my police vehicle in the front seat. There are too many memories to list but I will cherish his friendship forever. Rest in peace my brother for your efforts will not be forgotten. Ron Jimenez
