

Josie M. Gonzales

May 25, 1931 - October 24, 2025

Josie Gonzales, 94 of Pueblo, CO passed away peacefully on October 24, 2025. Josie is preceded in death by her husband Juan, her parents Jose and Mary Lujan, brothers Enos Ruybal and Joe Lujan, and nephews Steve Lujan and Adrian Suazo. She leaves to cherish her memory, her siblings, Priscilla (Gerson) Roybal, Corrine Bueno, Zeke (Dolores) Lujan, Manuel Lujan and Ann (Jim) Suazo; very special niece and caregiver AnnaLis Arellano, as well as a host of other nieces and nephews. At the tender age of 16, Josie entered into service to the Lord by becoming a Carmelite nun and thus began a long spiritual journey. Josie spent the next 20 years serving the less fortunate with her Carmelite sisters. Her service took her as far away as Nicaragua. She left the convent in 1967 and returned to Pueblo to care for her parents. However, her faith and devotion remained strong, and she continued to serve the Lord. Josie was often called upon to recite the rosary at funerals throughout town, and she also served as a Eucharistic Minister at Holy Family parish and St. Mary Corwin Hospital for well over 25 years. When the passage of time had begun to take its toll on Josie's health, her niece, AnnaLis, lovingly took over her care until our Lord called Josie home. Josie's family wishes to extend a very special thank you to Celene and Mark from Gentiva Hospice and to the staff of the Sharmar Village Memory Care Unit, especially Jeannine, Shirley and Bella for the extraordinary care, comfort and compassion they provided to Josie; and to Toni Gallardo and Nancy Montoya for being the kindest, most generous and loving neighbors. Josie was truly blessed to have you all in her life.
