“ I’m so grateful for Sister Judy in my life! She was an amazing example of a godly wife, mom & friend. She had a gift of sharing truth with such love! I have such fond memories of her caring for my Daniel as an infant. My deepest condolences to you all. Dave & Judy live a strong legacy. I love you all so much!

“ Judy since you were so young in the Jacquez family of eight your warmth and acceptance was always given unselfishly. I recall as your brother the many walks to school and fun we shared in the harvest fields we so worked steadfastly. We were each other’s confidant at school, home and work. You helped the family so much by your hard work at the restaurant, open fields, house cleaning and cooking. When you married I experienced your unwavering love and support through my college days and watched you brilliantly take the role of mother and wife! You did all with finesse and grace which I admired your deep love for All! Your love for God was inspiring and now your in His Care. So rest sweet Sis and I will miss your kind words, cooking and love! My success was build on your being a strong Sister forever more! Love you Sis, Gene

“Some of the greatest fans, have fans themselves. I was a huge fan of Judy Arellano; she was light and love in every moment I had the privilege of sharing with her.

In the world of fandom, there was no greater love present on the sidelines of sports, than that of Judy and David. At any opportunity possible, the Arellanos would show up to their grandkids' basketball, baseball, softball games - and more (Renee, David and their families often accompanied them too, creating a powerful force of fans). Most familiar to me were the basketball and softball games as my daughter and Corinna have played on the same teams since they were 3. The Arellano family would show up larger than life, carrying chairs, warm welcomes, cheers, and often bags of Judy's delicious burritos - enough to feed us all. Most recently, I stood in awe as the personification of their love embraced the game, the team - and treated us all as family in the hours we applauded the kids, together. There was a collective electricity when the Arellano family was present. In my last conversation with Judy, I asked her how she was doing, having just lost David months before. She said, with tears in her eyes, "I am doing a little bit better with each day, but I am doing my best when I have my family by my side."

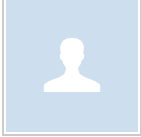

*"Love begins at home,
and it is not how much we do,
but how much love we put into action of all we do.
If you want to bring happiness to the whole world,
go home and love your family."
- Mother Theresa*

As heaven gained a dedicated and dearly respected mother / grandmother - and fan, Judy;s legacy will live on. Her loving spirit will continue to ripple outward through the beautiful family she so dearly loved - - as they continue to make a difference in their communities and beyond.

Our sympathies to all of the Arellanos,

the Ackerman Family
