“ I remember, when we all lived in the same apartment complex, that I would always walk over to see if Adam was home. Even when he wasnt, She would always invite me in and always made me feel very welcome in her home. We had some wonderful talks, and she never hesitated to break out baby pictures of Adam and Amber. 90% was because she was so proud of her children. The other 10% was because she knew I would tease them about it, and that made her laugh. Rest in Paradise, Momma Bear.

June was a very special person. She was one of the first to give a gift 2 my grandson Lenny when he was born. She actually made him a beautiful Cars blanket that he still uses. I was very impressed that she took the time to make something so special for him. I'm going 2 retire it in her memory and save it as a keepsake. Thank u 4 being u June!! U will b trully missed.
