“ I had the pleasure of meeting Justin back in 2017. I was his Mgr at an AutoDealership. He attacked every day with preparation. He was a student in the art of sales and he intended to be the best. He would

Video meetings and go back and watch them over and over. Sales was his passion, the only bigger passion was his family and his little brother and sister. He talked about them often.

I'm selfishly devastated to hear he has moved
On without getting to say good bye. Love ya buddy
