“ My memories of Kelly were always in church. You two staring at each other and growing to know one another. I remember her having to sit in a lawn chair at church. I think she broke her leg. Its been such a long time ago. Kelly was always kind and loving. The last time we all saw each other my sweet Mama was with me. We were all shopping and Mom was happy that you both remembered her. What a wonderful life she had here. Now she awaits her families arrivals in the rapture. Thank you Father for blessing all who knew Kelly. We will all meet again. No separation, no tears, no pain or sorrow - just praising our King together !!

“ Gone to soon. I feel and pray for the family as they have to adapt to finishing this life without her here. The times I most enjoyed working with Kelly was in outreach. Surely there was a soul winners crown for her as she entered paradise. I remember the time we were working on our yearly evangelistic outreach (Hell House) and how Kelly played the abortion nurse who had had enough of the murder she saw (so impacting). I do remember as well (as we always did) the time when we made the spoof of the scene and how she was going through the trash picking up mailers one said "Vote for Bush" the other said "Vote for Kerry", her trash was full of these things and she then ran screaming out of the room overwhelmed by all the junk mail. She will be greatly missed and yet I know she is doing much better then all of us.

“ Kelly was always giving of herself. She even helped us move when we came to Pueblo. Many times we were fortunate enough to eat a meal at her house. She was kind and loving and a wonderful supportive mother and wife. She is greatly missed!

I keep thinkg of the reward Kelly is receiving right now! For the 30yrs I knew her on earth she passionately pursued the Lord, and shared His truth with everyone she encounter. Her sweet gentlw soul made her a quick friend, and her angelic voice lead yoi sweetly into God's presence. I bet the angels sit and listen to her worship of redemption. Everything Kelly believed, she is now receiving.

“ I Don't remember how old Kelly was, in 1980, but I first met her as she rode by me, in a State Fair parade float. God was pulling me to Him, at that time. I sat on the steps with my 7 and 3 yr old Sons as I began to hear the annointed voices of Kelly and the other woman's voices and I was stirred. I heard the name of the Church and knew it was where I was suposed to go.

I gave my life, once again, to God on September 13th 1980.

Watching Kelly and other's example stirred to be brave. I've known Kelly for almost 38 yrs and can not think of anyone I've ever met that I respect more, she never intentionally drew attention to herself but who she was, the light and kindness in her, drew people to her and ultimately to God.

I've posted this before and will say it again, Proverbs 31 describes her perfectly, she is RELIABLE, FAITHFUL, ALWAYS KIND AND THOUGHTFUL, A MOTHER TO ALL, A FRIEND TO ALL AND HER FAMILY WILL ALWAYS BE BLESSED BECAUSE OF HER.

I am not sad about her and honestly I have a hard time being sad for Mark and her Beautiful Girls because You All have the BEST in Kelly, the Best Wife and Mother.

I Don't believe we have much time left her and this is not our home. Maybe Momma just had to go to Heaven for preparations. You will All be together again soon.

I LOVE YOU KELLY GRIEGO, THANK YOU FOR BEING THE LOVING OPEN DOOR THAT YOU ARE.
