“ Remember when you promised me we'd ride and die together..remember when you and luis used to make fun of me because i didn't want to go down the hills with yous.? Remember we'd walk to seven eleven by your house and just munch and never stop , remember we went to Somerlid & Freed together and nonstop crack eachother up. ? I didn't think it'd all end there Gavi. ❤️😔 i thought we'd have more to come. I never gave up on you why did you give up on me. ? I love you , no matter what. Prayers are sent out to your family & hope they're doing well. Heaven has gained another angel. Well plenty.. but i love you so much. Don't forget i still have your letter from middle school. ❤️ can't help but die on the inside because tomorrow will be close to 9 months baby boy. You'll always be my best.. no matter what. No boy can replace the relationship we all had. We all hated to see you give up.. especially the way luis , our group felt when you and dom departed.❤️❤�. Ill stay strong for you. All that matters is youre happy now and thats all i care about.❤️ R.I.P. Gavii , Te amoo 🙏❤️

“ You were one of the very first students I worked with at CCA. Every morning you would come in with a smile on your face and with a leap in your step. Though all you wanted to do was draw, you did what you had to do. I had the honor of being your tutor, and your basketball co-coach for the YMCA. I remember during the last week of school, you had done an amazing drawing and given it to me. I asked that you sign it for me and that in 20 years, I would be expecting to see your drawings on the walls of an art gallery. You hugged me and said that any drawing I like would be mine. You thanked me for believing in you. Now you're painting the skies.
RIP Gavino
