

Kevin Curtis Coca

February 16, 1967 - January 21, 2022

Kevin Curtis Coca, 54 of Pueblo passed away on January 21, 2022. Beloved father, son, brother, pompo, uncle, and friend. Kevin was born in Raton New Mexico on February 16, 1967. He resided most of his life in Pueblo Colorado where he enjoyed his days spending time watching sports. No matter who was playing, you would always see him cheering on the Broncos, Rockies, Avalanche and Nuggets. He worked at Walmart for close to 30 years and made some great friends while being there. You may also remember his days working at Peppers where he made some lifelong friends as well. He loved spending time with his parents and would make sure to go by and visit them as much as possible. He loved spending time with his daughter, son in law and grand babies and always made sure to spoil them every chance he got. When he loved, he loves with all his heart and always made sure to tell you how much you meant to him. Kevin was proceeded in death by his sister Alisha Coca; nephew Brendan Johnson; grandparents; cousins, uncles and aunts. He is survived by his daughter Shanae (Chance); grandchildren, Malachi, Danaya and Kyson; parents Irene and Steve Coca, sister Angela (Eric Sr), nephews, Eric Jr (Miranda). Christian, Aiden, niece Abigail, godson Austin great nephews, Julien, Kameron, DeSean, Jacob. “ My condolences to Kevin’s family. May he Rest In Peace with the lord. We went to high school together then later played volleyball. He taught me a lot on the court and I was always grateful for the time he spent with me and his patience and guidance making me a better player. He was honest and genuine, a good person. I am saddened to hear of his passing but will always remember him the way he was. Rest In Peace Kevin.
