

Larry Gius

September 4, 2020

Larry Gius, 71, of Pueblo, CO went to be with the Lord on September 4, 2020. He was preceded in death by his parents, Paul Gius Sr. and Cora Trujillo; and son, Larry Gius Jr.. He is survived by his children, April (William) Dunbar, Manuel Salazar III (Cassandra Goldbach), Shawn Gius, Pamela (Mario) Frank, Joshua Gius, Nicole (Dillon) Womeldorff and Robin Romero. Siblings, Nanci Gius, Paul (Maria) Gius Jr., Jeanette (Jodie) Gius, 17 grandchildren, 12 great grandchildren, numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family and friends. Larry was born and raised in the Bessemer area. He worked at Colorado State University Pueblo and retired in 2011. Larry had three other siblings; one brother and two sisters, who he loved dearly. His mother Cora was a single mother who provided for him and raised him to believe in Jesus Christ. Larry had seven children who he loved dearly, including Larry Jr., who passed away when he was a baby. Larry raised his kids to believe in Jesus and to strive to be the best. He had the heart of a lion and cared for the ones he loved. Many lives were impacted by Larry's contagious positive attitude and his music that runs through the Gius' veins. He loved playing his guitar and singing to our family at parties. The most precious thing to him was his kids and his grandchildren. Larry will be missed by many people and it's not a goodbye, but until we meet again, we love you with all our hearts. siempre estarás en mi corazón!
