“ As one reads through these posts of memories of Laura, it's not surprising to see everyone feels like they had that "special" relationship with her. But that was the magic of her beautiful soul. It's like she sprinkled fairy dust on all who were blessed to know her. I too loved her dearly. She deserved to have an enchanted life...we all know she didn't, it was a hard life, but she lived it the best she could with love and the courage of any soldiers. I give a final salute to the magical lady that she was.
Floyd, always know that she was so proud of you. The man, husband, an father you became.
Dina, you walked this life side by side. No mother daughter relationship could be stronger. Draw your strength from that. Live your life and make her proud. If you look real hard, I bet you'll find she left you your very own bag of fairy dust.
If I can ever be there for you....well, you know.
