“ Growing up, Richard always spoiled me. Always gave made laugh, gave me quarters for candy I'd buy them share with Everyone. I learned how to bring laughter from my cousin Richard. Thank you Abba Father Daddy God for sharing in Jesus Mighty Name. Watch him in his next journey with you. Love Johanna " Enie"

I am at a loss for words as the tears roll down my face. I loved spending time on long rides to the mountains and going fishing with him and his lovely wife, Mary. Many prayers for the family. Much love and respect to you all!

Richard and Mary were always fun to be around. He loves to tease Mary about going to Cripple Creek. God bless the Madrid family. Peace be with you.
