

Louis A. Esquibel

May 22, 2021

Louis A. Esquibel Sr. 75, of Pueblo passed away on May 22, 2021 surrounded by his loving family. He was preceded in death by his son Louis A. Esquibel Jr.; and numerous other family members. He is survived by his daughter Lisa; sons Mario (Katrina) and Michael; eight grandchildren; four great grandchildren, mother of his children, Priscilla Licon; brothers Alex (Maryann) and Adolph Esquibel, sister Cecelia Lovato; numerous nieces and nephews, extended family and friends. Louis was a proud Veteran of the United States Navy. He worked as a boilermaker at CF&I Steel, for over 20 years and was a member of the Union Ironworkers, Local 24, for 18 years before retiring from both. He was so proud to work alongside his sons on the iron. He enjoyed family gatherings, watching the Denver Broncos, yardwork, listening and dancing to music. Louis is now in the arms of our heavenly father. He will be forever loved and missed by those he leaves behind. Memorial Service, 12:30 pm, Saturday, American Legion Hall, 701 W. 9th St. Pueblo.
