“ RIP Lucia 🙏 David, Ron, & Susie my deepest condolences during this very difficult time. Find comfort in knowing that she's no longer suffering & is now in heaven playing poker with the old gang from back in the good ole days Viola, Herman, & Eddie. I have fond memories of the poker get togethers, volleyball games, & camping & fishing @ Alamogordo & Fort Sumner lakes & ringing in a new year with a dance @ the Legion. God Bless Amiga 💜

“ Lucia, my sister, had a gift for getting people together and for making each one feel like her favorite ... favorite brother, sister, son, daughter, grandchild, nephew, niece, student, etc. She was always ready with a hug and never complained if you didn't hug back. She always tried to connect by phone or text to see how you were doing. As one of hundreds of her “village” people; I will miss her so much. See you in heaven, sister

“ Lucia Sandoval is my aunt. My dad Abel Huereca was her brother. I grew up as a kid vacationing with my family. It was always a trip to see my cousins. I still played crosswords with my aunt as an adult. She was always super sharp and I will miss her “ Spending time with family and cooking were two of her favorite things to do and I was able to capture these memories during my visit with her.

“ I taught with Lucia at Baca Elementary for many years. She also was my son's preschool teacher. Her laughter is what I remember most. I'm sure her family will miss that laughter. My condolences to you all. ———Denise Torrez
