

Lydia Cordova Mejia Masias

February 20, 2020

Daughter, Mother, Wife and Grandmother, Lydia Cordova Mejia Masias entered into eternity on February 2, 2020, after a hard fought battle with dementia. Lydia was born on November 27, 1933, in Rocky Ford, Colorado, to Gonzalo and Jacoba Masias and lived the last 30+ years in Pueblo, Colorado. Lydia was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Genaro Mejia Palacios, the father of her children Narciso Cordova, sister Barbara Magdaleno, and brothers Joe, Jess, George, and Ray Masias. Lydia is survived by her children, Randy Cordova, Denise Cordova (Teresa Long), granddaughter Reina del Cid and brothers Daniel, Arthur and David Masias and numerous nieces and nephews. Lydia had an amazing “green thumb” and could bring any plant back to life. She loved the call of Mourning doves, was a fabulous cook, fantastic dancer and a prolific walker into her early eighties. Lydia instilled her love of music in her children and this love continues to flourish within popular singer/songwriter Reina del Cid. Lydia enjoyed traveling to visit her children and granddaughter; she especially loved seeing Reina in concert. There is no doubt that Lydia danced into heaven and was welcomed by family, friends and grand-pets. Lydia will be missed. There is a void left in the hearts of her children.

“One thing I ask from the Lord, this only do I seek: that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to gaze on the beauty of the Lord and to seek him in his temple...” Psalm 27:4. At Lydia’s request, there will be no memorial service.

MAMA

*My Mother's gift, through newborn pain,
The cherished event, this child's gain.*

You're with me Madre mía.

La última despedida.....

*My Mother's smile, could save my heart,
If life seemed wrong, and ripped apart.*

You're with me Madre mía.

La última despedida.....

*My Mother's eyes, looked deep inside,
Within Her stare, I felt Her pride.*

You're with me Madre mía.

La última despedida.....

*My Mother's Mom, a Grandma's care,
Relentless Love, through times unfair.*

You're with me Madre mía.

La última despedida.....

*My Mother's worry, shrunk distance and time,
The constant star, in my chaotic rhyme.*

You're with me Madre mía.

La última despedida.....

*My Mother's dream, a thoughtful being,
Take up the fight, or dance and sing.*

You're with me Madre mía.

La última despedida.....

My Mother's prayer, for Family and Friend,

*Hug one another, share kindness to tend.
You're with me Madre mía.
La última despedida.....*

*My Mother's spirit, protects my soul,
Angels abound, in Her Heavenly goal.
You're with me Madre mía.
La última despedida.....*

*My Mother's touch, upon my face,
The impending end, to Her darkened race.
I'm with You Madre mía.
Es la última despedida..... ~ RRC*

Lydia attended our church services when she was in the Reno area, and enjoyed hearing Denise preach. Rest in eternal peace, Lydia. And may the Holy Spirit comfort each of you, Denise, Randy and Rachelle, until you see her again.

She will be missed! Enjoyed our time together. Enjoyed listening to all her memories as a young girl and her family. She was a strong and independent woman. She is resting now.
