“ I have a lot of amazing and not so amazing memories. I know our history isn't the best but I still can't help but love you. I met you at 14 and we've been friends ever since, even if you never considered me a close friend, having you apart of my life is enough. I will never forget you and will always hold on to the times we had together. I'll miss you & I love you.

“ You were always the light in the darkness, able to bring a smile to one's face when they didn't feel like themselves. Always my brother no matter how much we saw or talked to each other. I love you bro, watch over us.

“ You came in and out of my home as one of my own. I cannot believe you are gone. My prayer for you is that God allows you to be a guardian angel because you have always protected and watched over others here. All my love Michelle (mikki)
