“ Our new brothers, Manuel 5 years old and Steven 3 years old, were so cute. We all lived together on Galapego St in Denver. It was so funny to watch them play and be boys, we loved them. They were good boys and as they grew up my dad started to put them in boxing. Then they fell in love with that sport and keep up with it. I got married and moved away so when I saw them years later they were already starting their own families. I have many memories of our brothers, too many to mention. Sad to know I've lost both of them now, but they will always be in my heart forever; and my memories are safe in my mind to replay when needed. May Manuel be reunited with brother Steve and they both be young and healthy . Rest in Peace now brother, "no worries we've got it covered." Love and miss youyour sis, LENE...
