“Mario I Love You. I have a lot of special memories of you. Your mom & dad hired me to be your's and Nona's nanny. You both were really young, we had a lot of fun. Your parent's would take me on vacations, so that I could watch you both. There was this one crazy day, your mom and dad were at work, your mom had put some beans on the stove in the pressure cooker and she told me not to remove the beans until the beans were done and the pressure cooker had cooled down. I decided to open the pressure cooker sooner than I should have. You, Nona and I learned exactly what happens if we open the pressure cooker too soon. Beans were everywhere, the ceiling, the floor and places I never imagined they could get to.

Both of you heard the noise, ran into the kitchen and you were both sliding everywhere, you both started laughing and told me how much fun it was, meanwhile I was trying to figure out, how I was going to clean the mess up, you both were really sweet and helped me clean up, you both were still sliding on the floor until we cleaned it up. You both never said anything until your mom found beans in the hallway leading down to your basement.

Your mom one day asked how beans got down the wall, she told me that she heard the story and she laughed. She also found out that when the pressure cooker opened the pressure sent beans and water everywhere including my left arm, I showed her the burn and she asked why I did not tell her, the burn was bad , but I told her that I was fine.

You both remind me of that day and those other special days.

Mario you were always giving me those special hugs, when grandpa died you came up to me and gave me a big hug and whispered something special in my ear. You always reminded me of that little boy that I watched, you also grew up to be a fine young man and I will miss you.

You are now safe in the arms of your mom and dad. I see that little boy smiling and happy! I am sending you one of those special hugs and whispering in your ear those special words you whispered in mine.

I have this video of you at one of the family reunions you attended with your mom, you were listening to Uncle Danny's wonderful stories.

I will forever miss you,

Your Aunt Jessie
