

Mark Simrow

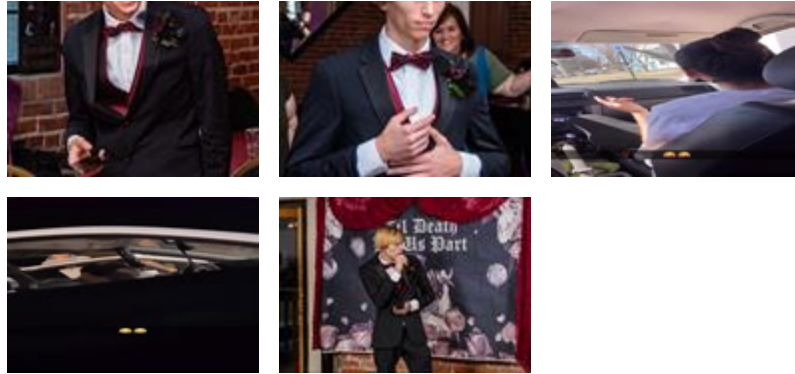

August 25, 2000 - October 1, 2024

Mark Simrow, 24, passed away on October 1, 2024. He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Christine Quin; great grandfather, Larry Kick; and uncle, Joshua Specht. He is survived by his parents, Mark (Cari) Simrow and Jennifer Scoggin; siblings, Dante Simrow, Evan Hercog, Camron Specht, Ryker Scoggin, Arianna Scoggin, Tyler Elser, Mathew Elser and Lily Elser; grandparents, Tom and Dawn Roth; numerous family and friends. Marks greatest joy was surrounding himself with the people he loved. He was very passionate about cars and riding scooters. He was one of the kindest people who had a giving heart. He was always upbeat and happy even when things got tough. He was the kind of person who brought light into every room he stepped in, the kindest soul you could meet.

Tribute Wall

AL

“ We miss you here with us my friend you were such a happy person I'll never understand why it had to be you 💔 we love you Lots

alyssa - October 18, 2024 at 01:02 PM

PK

“ Phillip Kiefer lit a candle in memory of Mark Simrow

Phillip Kiefer - October 08, 2024 at 03:27 PM